In this document and the accompanying diagrams, each person has an assigned ID. The ID is a segmented number where each segment is separated by a period. The number of segments indicates the generation. For example, 1.2.3 is the third child of 1.2 who is the second child of 1.0. Spouses are identified with a suffix of “-n” where n is the number of the marriage; for example, 1.2.3-1 is the first spouse of 1.2.3.

Key dates are specified in MM-DD-CCYY format with abbreviations:

abt.: about

b.: born

bap.: baptized

m.: married

div.: divorced

sep.: separated

d.: died

bur.: buried

			held Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bryne was born in Truro, Mass. on Cape Cod, a descendant of the Leete family that had settled in New Haven in 1632. In his youth he followed the sea, but at the age of 21 he went to Boston and found work with a contractor. Four years later he went into business for himself. He specialized in heavy construction work, and was president of A. W. Bryne &amp; Son, Inc., a son, Thomas L., being associated with him in business. Worked for Government Mr. Bryne's business interest took him to all parts of the country. He did contract work for the government at Fort Russell, in Cheyenne, Wyo., and also work for the city of Cheyenne. He left Cheyenne to take charge of a construction job in New Orleans, but in 1899 returned to Wyoming where he prospected for copper. Among his large contracts were those of the Metropolitan Sewer and Water System in Massachusetts, and the Passaic Valley System in New Jersey, both of which cost in the millions. He also handled numerous contracts in New York and other states, and for numerous state institutions in Connecticut. He was regarded as an authority on explosives, and his advice was frequently sought on blasting and the use of dynamite. Mr. Bryne came to Hartford in 1907 and immediately began to take an active interest in civic and political affairs. Long active in Republican circles in the Eighth Ward, he played a prominent part in the many battles which gave the district its name of "The Fighting Eighth." Common Council Member He served as a member of the Common Council of this ward, being elected in 1924 and serving a term of two years, during which time he was a member of several important committees. In 1926 he was elected ward chairman, succeeding the late Coe E. Hawkins, a position

Mullins) (Roseanne Julia Dore Mullins)	b. 11-14-1871 Chelsea, MA m. 4-9-1906 Andrew Willis BRYNE in Chicago, IL d. 1914	Son Thomas Lachlyn Bryne believed his mother to be related to Julia T. (Dorey) MULLINS, I proved this conclusively in 2016. He also said her father was a French cavalry officer. I verified the calvalry bit: Mansfield enlisted in the Massachusetts 3rd Calvalry on 11-16-1861; he was discharged with a disability (fractured right knee) on 9-16-1862 in New Orleans, LA. He served during the Civil War. 4-9-2016 discovered: Father: Alfred J. MULLINS who also used two other names: Mansfield A. Moullins and Mansfield A. Mouline. (It seems likely his middle name was Alfred.) Born Montreal, Quebec 7-12-1839. Died 2-10-1905 Gloucester, MA age 61. Mother: Julia Tryphina DOREY. Born 12-28-1838 Guysborough Intervale, Nova Scotia. Death unknown. Thus Andrew and Rose were first cousins. There is a family story that she attended school in CA, in particular Mills College in Oakland, CA on 1-12-1888 and that Asa HAMILTON, married to Eunice Lucretia Louisa Jane DOREY, paid her tuition. Leander Dorey was unable to confirm the attendance with the college. Her marriage license said she was age 32 of Boston, MA. She was married by a Justice of the Peace. In 1900 lived in Carbon County, WY with husband Andrew and son Thomas. She was born 11-1872 in MA to parents born MA. Andrew's record said both his parents were born MA, which was in error since mother was born Canada. In 1910 lived in Boston, MA with husband, 2 children born, 1 living. She was age 37 born MA to parents born Canada. Andrew's record correctly named the birth location of his parents. A horsewoman, she never recovered from a fall. She drowned herself. There is a dress of hers in a museum in Cheyenne, WY. Page 9 of 56 Children: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Thomas Lachlyn Bryne, b. 1900 Grand Encompment,</li> </ul>

This was the Orleans Hotel at 100 West 80th Street at the corner of Columbus Avenue. It was built in 1898–1900 in the newly fashionable form of an apartment-hotel. It is the second oldest surviving tall building (10 stories) on the west side of Manhattan after the Dakota completed in 1884. The building is currently The Orleans, www.theorleansny.com. In 1930 lived in Manhattan on West 80th St. by herself, single; office secretary. In 1970 lived in Silver Spring, MD. She is listed on the Women’s Memorial outside the gates of Arlington National Cemetery in VA. Her death date is from her mother’s bible.

She is believed to have married in 1919, but Annie (Barrett) Bryne's family bible stated 12-1922. Looking for Gladys in 1920, a 26-year old Gladys Shaw lived in Jacksonville, IL with husband A. W. and son Joseph (9/12 born Canada). She was born OH to parents born OH, husband born IL to mother born Canada. Interesting Canada connection. This was likely her first marriage. In 1930 she lived in Manhattan, NY at 138 West 77th Street married with two daughters Yvonne and Shirley; painting artist; married at age 20. Her husband was not present. [I first learned about Gladys in July 2009 when I was contacted by two of her descendants. According to the 1930 census she first married in 1914, it seems she must have had a marriage prior to Andrew. This suggests that Shaw was not her maiden name.]

Cremated in Pomona, CA. I have several letters from a couple (Joseph G. and Blanche F. Brown) who were friends looking for a family member to pay the medical bills. He was a mine construction contractor. In MA had been a sea captain (mariner) and fisherman. I noted the following story about him in 1979 based on accounts of John Bryne, Marion Carlson, and David Dorey: Thomas was a sea captain from age 14 on. He was a very good sailor but a hard man. He raced another ship to Africa and won. He could sail the Atlantic coast by the seat of his pants, without charts or technological devices. His crews deserted him in port—once was enough. He shanghaied (kidnapped) Daniel Dorey (my uncle) for three years upon learning Dan had joined the revenueurs (Coast Guard) and kept him sailing non-stop without pay. Bryne sailed a circular route: Boston, Cuba, Africa. He dealt in cotton and slaves [I doubt this bit about slavery as it was done then], among other things. He ended up with the Matson Lines in San Francisco. None of these stories have been corroborated.

1.10	George Milton BRYNE	b. 4-8-1869 Truro, MA m. 11-22-1905 Blanche Louise BRUCE in Medford, MA d. 2-18-1963 Marblehead, MA, age 93 bur. Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Wellfleet, MA	Lived in Winchester, MA most of life. Owned over 100 acres and a “camp” near Wellfleet, MA. The Cape Cod National Seashore took much of the land. George sold the rest to a dentist named Alfie who had previously rented it. The camp was a small cabin where he entertained customers and politicians. The cabin had a wine cellar under a trap door in the floor. Owned a marine construction business. In 1951, at age 83, he raised the motorship Arizona Sword which on 5-7-1951 had collided with another ship in the Cape Cod Canal and sunk near the canal entrance, it was featured on the cover of Life magazine of June 16, 1952 (the article was titled “Octogenarian’s Jackpot”), the issue is on Google Books; the owners and the insurance companies carrying the insurance on the vessel and cargo abandoned the motorship and cargo as a total loss. The Army Engineers concluded the sunken wreck constituted a menace to navigation and solicited bids to dismantle and remove it. George won the bid and contracted on 7-6-1951; he was paid $227,000 and given title to the ship and its contents. It took him to June 1952 to raise the ship, during which he spent much more than he had been paid. He worked with his sons on the project; George, 41, handled the paper work and planning while John, 34, was the project supervisor. He removed about 4,000 pounds of sulphur which he then tried to sell. (One account said he removed all 48,000 pounds by midsummer 1951. Other accounts give the quantity as 4,800 tons and 28,000 tons.) On 9-28-1951 he contracted to sell it for $60/ton and delivered about 618 tons under the contract. There began a legal dispute about whether or not the sulphur was under a price control under the Defense Production Act of 1950, George was sued by the US government. In 1955 the case

			continued. George won the principle (that he owned the salvage), but lost $1 million. He then sold the boat back to its builder. (In 1961 the boat, owned by Texas Bulk Sulphur Company, sank off the coast of Palm Beach, Florida with a full cargo of sulphur, seven hands were lost, the cook escaped.) There is an article with photos on the Arizona Sword's 1951 sinking from the National Archives at Boston on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/media/set/?set=a.445820848784023.105923.126634757369302&amp;type=3 There is a family story that he was involved in building the Cape Cod Canal walls and Boston's Callahan Tunnel (opened November 11, 1961, the Sumner Tunnel had opened in 1934), but it is not yet substantiated. He built the Grand Island Bridge in Barnstable. Regarding the Callahan Tunnell, the Perini Corporation held the contract, Irving R. Huie led the construction. Perhaps George was a subcontractor. Deaf. Children: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ George Herrick Bryne, b. 1911 Stoneham, MA</li> <li>▪ John Dewart Bryne, b. 1917 Winchester, MA</li> </ul> In 1890 lived in Boston, MA; clerk. In 1905 he had an office in Boston at 7 Water room 408. In 1910 lived at 5 Woodside Road, Winchester, MA with wife Blanche and servant; foundation contractor. In 1920 lived at 9 Pine Street, Winchester, MA with wife and two sons; engineering contractor. Died of infection after gall bladder removal.

by Susan J. Dorey

There are two family lots in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Wellfleet, MA, one for Doreys (#450) and one for Brynes. Thomas BRYNE is buried in the Dorey lot, Caroline Ann Dorey is buried in the BRYNE lot. There is a BRYNE lot #115 in South Truro Cemetery, Truro, MA but apparently there are no markers.
