			Burial ceremony by R. F. Brine. His tombstone in the church cemetery is engraved: PHILIP DORÉ BORN 1799 DIED 1863 HATTIE FRANKLIN BORN 1849 DIED 1897 AT REST Hattie was believed by some to be his second wife, but I have found no evidence for this. I believe her to be daughter Harriet. Robert S. Latimer believes she was the wife of Philip's son Philip, but this man lived in California and as early as 1860 and died there unmarried in 1899. There is more discussion of her identity in the entry for Henriette Dorey. Another mystery is why Philip's early children were baptized in an Anglican church (the last in 1843) and the later children were baptized in a Catholic church (beginning in 1845). I ascribe children William and Chester Leet to Philip because of their naming on the stained glass window. It may be that William was really George William Dorey (son of Georgbe and Charlotte) and Chester Leet was Ralph Chester Leet Dorey (son of Henry James Lafford Dorey and Janet Robertson) b. 1897.
1. -1	Margaret LEET	b. 6-3-1809 Guysborough Intervale, NS m. 5-7-1829 Christ Church, Guysborough, NS d.	Father: Andrew LEETE b. abt. 1776 Connecticut Colony, d. 1-16-1865 Guysborough, NS. English ancestry. Mother: Mary MacPHERSON b. abt. 1873 NY, m. 12-7-1800 Guysborough Intervale, d. 5-28-1875 Guysborough Intervale. Her half-sister Margaret married Andrew's brother Jabez in a double wedding. She was the daughter of James McPHERSON and Mary, he was a British soldier who fought (and likely died) in the Revolutionary War. Margaret was a descendant of William Leete (1612–1683), a governor of Connecticut, and thus of William I the Lion, King of Scotland (1142–1214).

			Margaret's last child was named Eunice Lucretia Louisa Jane Dorey, I suspect the child was named after two aunts: Eunice and Lucretia Leet. I don't know where Louisa came from. In summer 1786 Margaret's grandfather Andrew Leete moved his wife and six children from CT to Guysborough, Nova Scotia. He was one of the 18 original settlers of the Hallowell Grant. (In 1765 Benjamin Hallowell, Sr., Comptroller of the Port of Boston, received a grant of 20,000 acres on Chedabucto Harbor in what is now Guysborough County. At the end of the American Revolution, lands were granted to soldiers of disbanded regiments and to settlers from former American colonies who had remained loyal to the British crown.) Margaret's father was born with his surname spelled Leete, the final "e" was dropped when the family moved to Nova Scotia. Margaret, born in NS, was named Leet. Grandfather Andrew settled on 150 acres in Guysborough Intervale on the banks of the Milford Haven River. In 1871 Margaret lived with son Andrew Cyrus in Arichat. Death is believed to be about 1875. No burial record found.

He had a moving business and a construction business (he was a prominent building contractor in Hillsborough, Burlingame, and San Mateo), was a real estate developer, and a wheeler dealer. A city street in San Mateo, Dore Avenue, is named for his family. In 1930 lived with wife Kathleen, mother Janet, and son John Jr. in Burlingame, CA. Don't know who this son was, certainly not the one born 1940. Uncle Harve (as Barb Miller knew him) bought property in Redwood City (?) that was a farm with animals. He used to take John Jr. (the son born in 1940) there. John Jr. died there in an accident. After that John Harvard was dispirited. Lived at 1614 Forest View, Burlingame, CA at time of death, Died of cancer. Died with surname DORE. Three children.

Married 1-16-1897 in Jonseport, ME. In 1910 and 1920 parental family lived in Jonesport, ME. Jonesport is on the coast very close to Nova Scotia, far north of Acadia National Park. 8-2009: I could not find a marriage record for Kathleen in the Maine Vital Records. In 1930 her parents, two children, and 1 brother lived in Burlingame, CA at 119 Highland Avenue. In 1930 Kathleen lived in Burlingame on Lincoln Avenue with husband, mother-in-law, and one child: John Jr. age 5. This child is a mystery: if he is a child of Kathleen, then she was 16 when he was born. I can find no birth or death record for him. Obituary in "The Almanac," April 12, 2000: "Kathleen DORE. ... Before her final illness, she lived with her daughter, Kathleen Dore Lyons of Portola Valley, for 10 years. Mr. and Mrs. Dore helped found the San Mateo chapter of the Boys' Club of America in 1953 in memory of their son, John Harvard Dore Jr. The family gave four parcels of land on which the club was built. Former president of the United States Herbert Hoover attended the ground-breaking ceremony. The club is now known as the Midpeninsula Boys & Girls Club. Mrs. Dore became a 25-year volunteer with the American Cancer Society after her husband died of cancer in 1963... Survivors include her daughter, Kathleen Dore Lyons of Portola Valley, granddaughters, Lori Anne Zimmerman and Lynne Kathleen Carson of Burlingame; and two great-grandchildren...,"

Baptized as William Henry Wingard Dorey. Died a Captain in the Canadian Infantry (Saskatchewan Regiment) of the Royal Air Force in World War I. He died at Péronne, France (in Picardy on the Somme River); the effort was a part of the Reduction of Amiens Salient operation on the Western Front which was from August 8 to September 4, 1918. His family believes his body was not found. He is named at the Arras Flying Services Memorial in Pas de Calais, France; this memorial commemorates nearly 1,000 airmen who were killed on the whole Western Front and who have no known grave. On 8 August the Battle for Amiens (also known as the Third Battle of the Somme) commenced when a combined Australian, British and Canadian force attacked the Germans eastwards from Villers-Bretonneux. The offensive broke the German line so thoroughly that most of their field artillery was overrun and captured, their advance reversed. By the end of August 1918, the last German stronghold was located at Mont St Quentin, which overlooked the Somme River about 1.5 kilometers north of Péronne. This was attacked by the Australians, who then entered Péronne on September 2, 1918 after beginning their attack in the early morning of the day before. The War ended shortly thereafter. There is now in Péronne The Museum of the Great War. He was engaged, but not married, to an Englishwoman named Nora.

Believed to have served in the military because Barb Miller recalls photos of him in uniform. Went to Alberta. He died after being gassed in an oil well.

I include this fact because of the similarity of the surname to Dorey and the location. I know of no Olivers in my Dorey family. In 1880 lived in Sears, CA (as Doray), born in Nova Scotia to parents born in Nova Scotia, unmarried; miner. Lived with 29-year old Chinese laborer Ah Sin. The Cape Breton newspaper Bras d'Or Gazette on April 1899 reported that Philip Dore, son of P Dore of Arichat, died recently in Seesin County, California. He left $100,000 to relatives in Arichat and USA [a real fortune]. There is no CA county of that name, nor was there in 1899. Perhaps Sierra County, but this is still a mystery. Maybe Suisun, California a city in Solano County.

Not conclusive. The 1842 Census of Canada East cites a Francis Mullins, real property owner and merchant, living in Montreal on Commissioners Street with a family totaling 7 persons; they are not named. The 7 include 3 natives of Ireland and 4 natives of Canada; no persons under the age of 5. There was a second Francis Mullins family in Montreal in that census, living in Quartier Mer Maries: 17 people; it included one male under the age of 5 (which might have been Mansfield). Francis was a journalier (day laborer). In 1863 Francis Frederick Mullins sold property on Commissioners Street and other locations, Montreal to Francis Mullins. Four men named Francis Mullins were buried in Montreal’s Basilique Notre-Dame: in 1848, 1860, 1863, and 1866.

On July 5 18 petitioners, most of them Justices of the Peace, requested "remission of the punishment" of two months' imprisonment in County Jail. They argued he was a good lad whose support was badly needed by a poor widowed mother with 3 helpless children. A pardon was granted. John had four children, two each with his first two wives. I could not find him in the 1871 Canada census. On 12-6-1872 John filed a Petition to become a citizen of the US. He was born in Arichat in 1845, arrived Boston in April 1866. He was currently living in Somerville, MA. Two men claimed they knew him during the past 5 years, and that during that time John had resided in California, Boston, and Somerville. He was granted US citizenship on 12-5-1874. The 1870 US census cites a John Dory, age 26, in Goodwin Township, Plumas County, CA working as a placer miner, born in Nova Scotia. (Brother Philip Dorey had been a gold miner in CA since 1860.) Goodwin was created in 1866, it no longer exists. It is highly unlikely this miner was John James, but I am including it here "just in case." Given his citizenship petition, this very well may have been "my" John Dorey (my great grandfather). He is cited in the 1875 Boston City Directory living at 226

In 1930 lived in Falmouth, MA—the U. S. Coast Guard at Woods Hole. Retired 1952 after 25 years in Coast Guard as Chief Boatswain's Mate. His son Stephen reports: Apparently his experience as a child gave him a great appreciation for farming as that was a big part of his life after he retired. In addition to the cows we had to provide the family with milk, butter and meat and a family garden since early WW II, he had small commercial enterprises like a flock of several hundred laying hens and sold eggs. He had a plot of pickling cucumbers and supplied pickles to the canning factory where he worked for a time and sold vegetables for many years from his farm in Mechanic Falls. I think it was never much more than a hobby farm that likely never provided much positive cash flow. He took great pleasure to provide quality produce and the social aspects of delivering his produce to his customers." Died of heart attack. Buried Leeds Center Cemetery, plot 8, Leeds, ME.

(Wikipedia reports "Harriet . . . is an English version of the French Henriette.") She was cited in the 1852 "census" as Harriet Dorey. There is controversy about this woman's identity. Her baptism record makes her parentage clear. It is her father's tombstone that introduces the controversy: "PHILIP DORÉ BORN 1799 DIED 1863, HATTIE FRANKLIN BORN 1849 DIED 1897." Who was Hattie and why was she named on the tombstone? Wife? Daughter? First of all, Hattie is a common nickname for Harriet. Some researchers believe Hattie to have been a second wife of Philip's, but there is no evidence for this aside from the tombstone itself. I believe Hattie to be the daughter who was baptized as Henriette, which is why I report here that Harriet died in 1897. Family genealogist Robert S. Latimer in his Latimer Family History states that "Philip married Hattie Franklin," Philip being #1.2. This was repeated in Janvrin's Island, 200 Years to Celebrate. That seems unlikely because Philip Dorey the son lived in California from at least 1860 until his death in 1899 as an unmarried man. Stay tuned. The 1897 burial record was transcribed as "Mrs. Franklin?" and cause of death as "Drowned while bathing near the house; as a good swimmer supposed to have taken a fit or cramps in the water." This record, aside from the troublesome question mark, suggests that Hattie was not Mrs. Dorey.

In 1900 lived in Fremont, CO. Died unmarried of chronic endocarditis and acute inflammatory gall bladder. Miner at death. 3-21-1913 letter from Warwick M. Downing, attorney of Denver, CO to Daniel A. Dorey, Natick, MA about estate of Andrew Cyrus. 7-29-1913 letter from Julia T. Mullins in Salida, CO to Daniel A. Dorey about affairs of Andrew Cyrus. Surname spelled "Dore" on death certificate.
1.12	William DOREY	b. d.	Evidence for his existence: "Willie" is named in the stained glass window in St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS. He is also mentioned in an 1899 letter from Louise Dorey Hamilton addressed to Mrs. Stella Dorey: "I hear from Will occasionally." (Stella was Estella Dora Bryne Dorey). He could be #4.1 who was cited with his father George Dorey in the 1852 census. I think this is more likely.
1.13	Chester Leete DOREY	b. d.	Evidence for his existence is his appearance in the stained glass window in St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS. I have come to believe he is really Ralph Chester Leete Dorey, # 1.1.3.5.

ID	Name	Key Dates	Notes
1.14	Eunice Lucretia Louisa Jane DOREY	b. 1856 bap. 3-24-1856 St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS d. San Francisco, CA ?	On 9-29-1873 a Louisa Dorey, 17 of Nova Scotia, arrived Boston on the ship Alhambra from Charlottestown, PEI intending to live in the US. I do not know for sure is she is Eunice, but the age fits. In 1899 lived at 317 Powell Street, San Francisco, CA; this address was either an hotel or rooming house. Louisa did not show up there in the 1900 census (District 258). There is an 1899 letter from Louise Dorey Hamilton (Auntie Louise) to Mrs. Stella Dorey. There is a letter of 8-13-1900 from Nellie L. Hamilton of Brooklyn to Stella Dorey recalling a visit with Louise Hamilton.
1.14 -1	Asa HAMILTON	b. m. d.	In 1900 Nellie L. Hamilton of Monument Beach, MA wrote a letter to Stella Dorey. May have been relative. Monument Beach is on Cape Cod near the Canal; may have been a resort. There was a Hamilton family in Wworchester, MA with an Asa Hamilton as an early ancestor.
??	Thomas DOREY	b. 2-22-1832 bap. 3-17-1867 St. John's Anglican Church, Arichat, NS	Lived in Richmond Mines when baptized, miner. I include him because he was a Dorey baptized in the Arichat church where Philip Cyrus Dorey's family was baptized. Philip Cyrus' second son, Philip Dorey, was born 1832; he also was a miner. Perhaps Philip and Thomas were twins, although there are no other instances of twins in this family, or perhaps they were the same person.
